Greetings

Our Nisei pastor received the following communication from Rev. Sakae Hayakawa, who repatriated to Japan last August: "The voyage is first rate. I am fine, too. We will arrive at Yokohama on Nov. 13. Regards to all."

Jackson Furukawa writes from Enid, Oklahoma: "Give my best regards to the Church, and others who helped me enjoy my visit to the Center.

Lois, Chiyo and George Asawa are studying at William Penn College and Lois writes: "Will you please extend my greetings to all?"

CONGRATULATIONS

Kaz Ikebasu and Hiroshi Kayasuga were baptized by the Rev. J.K. Fukushima last Sunday.

Joy Kumagae, who left for Davenport, Iowa, was baptized by the Rev. K.H. Sakauc at the First Baptist Church of McGehee.

If you desire to join our church by baptism, please see any of the ministers.

Words of Thanks

For the pleasant experience and privilege that has been mine by being the president of the Young People's Christian Fellowship for the past six months, may I sincerely express my deepest appreciation.

The joys that I have found in being brought together in giving of our talents, our time, our interests, our lives through fellowship upon the work of God will certainly be cherished as one of my richest experiences in life.

As in the past, may I hope that we will continue to go forward together working in Christian fellowship and thus learn to live happily and profitably no matter how trying the days ahead of us may seem to be.
